PROJECTS

Exploratory data analysis (EDA) | SQL, Python (Pandas, Seaborn)

- Analyzed hotel booking data to uncover 37% peak cancellations in January and 85% cancellations from Portugal, driven by high ADR pricing and seasonal trends.
- Presented key insights through SQL queries and Python visualizations, including a 22% drop in cancellations for longer lead times, to support data-driven pricing and retention strategies.

AB testing and regression analysis | EDA(sql), A/B Testing, Regression (Python, sklearn, matplotlib)

- Conducted EDA and hypothesis testing on marketing data (CTR, CPC, Conversion Rates) using Python to evaluate platform performance.
- Rejected null hypothesis ($p\text{-value} < 0.05$) confirming Facebook ads outperform AdSense with significantly higher mean conversions; regression model predicted 13 conversions per 50 clicks for Facebook, enabling data-backed ad spend optimization

Bank Churn Dashboard Analysis | SQL, Tableau (KPIs, Interactive Dashboards)

- Analyzed bank churn data using SQL, identifying 27% overall churn, with peaks among 30-40 age group (35%) and single-product customers 42%.
- Built interactive Tableau dashboards with key KPIs, revealing 32% churn among customers with no credit cards and higher retention rates (20% improvement) among multi-service users, enabling targeted customer retention strategies.
