PROJECTS

WikiComics GenAI, Text-to-Image Transformer, LLM	April 2025
- A GenAI-powered learning platform that converts Wikipedia topics into style-based comics tailored to user preferences. - Integrated LLaMA3 for text summarization, storyline ideation and scene generation and FLUX.1-dev for comic generation. Applied Few-shot prompting to enhance the scene depth. - Designed a Langchain pipeline, enabling content flow. Included gamified progression and multilingual support.
FinLytics ^ Pandas, Random Forest, RAG, LangChain, Cognos BI	Nov 2024
- Trained a hyperparameter-tuned Random Forest Regressor for predicting PAT values using historical revenue, margin, and capex data for companies like Titan and Britannia. Achieved a R² score of 0.94. - Built a RAG pipeline using LangChain that used embeddings, ChromaDB for semantic search and Gemini-pro LLM to extract financial forecasts from investor meeting transcripts. - Designed an interactive dashboard to visualize YoY PAT and revenue growth across companies.
GeoLoopAI * Networkx, OpenCV	May 2025
- Detected roundabouts in shapefile-based map data by converting maps to graphs and filtering cycles using compactness ratio and structural features like size, road connectivity, and clustering. - Further refined results using OpenCV's grayscale conversion, Gaussian blur, and Hough Transform, successfully refining geospatial data by 99.84%.
SupplyIQ ^ Pandas, Matplotlib, Cognos BI	Nov 2024
- Engineered a supply chain optimization solution for Adyar Ananda Bhavan by analyzing 12 months of multi-location sales data. Performed data cleaning, understood statistical summary & visualized charts to derive key insights. - Designed an interactive dashboard to allow deep drill down into product-wise distribution. Proposed an estimated optimization in forecast precision by 10% and balance inventory by 8-9%.
SignSense Scikit Learn, OpenCV, Streamlit	Mar 2024 – May 2024
- A sign language recognition system built using Computer Vision & Machine Learning improving communication for deaf. - Trained a Random Forest Classifier model using Scikit Learn on custom datasets with 8000 samples. - Utilized Google's Mediapipe for landmark detection and OpenCV for real-time image processing. - 92% accuracy.
